Dear Lord,
There's a young man or woman far from home, called to serve their nation in a difficult time; sent to defend our freedom on some distant foreign shore.

We pray You keep them safe, We pray You keep them strong, we pray You send them safely home, For they've been away so long.

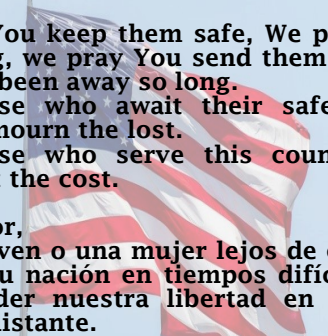

Bless those who await their safe return and those who mourn the lost.

Bless those who serve this country well, no matter what the cost.

Amado Señor,
Hay un joven o una mujer lejos de casa, llamado a servir a su nación en tiempos difíciles; enviado para defender nuestra libertad en alguna costa extranjera distante.

Oramos Para que los mantengas a salvo, Rezamos Para que los mantengas fuertes, rezamos Para que los envíes sanos y salvos a casa, porque han estado fuera tanto tiempo. Bendice a los que esperan su regreso seguro y a los que lloran a los perdidos.

Bendice a los que sirven bien a este país, no importa el costo.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
This Is My Body

A friend in high school once asked me why I wore a Crucifix around my neck. She was a Christian and very devout, so I was surprised at her confusion. “To remember Jesus’ sacrifice,” I said.

Her upper lip curled in disgust. “The cross is a sign of Jesus’ sacrifice,” she said. “He’s not on the cross anymore. It’s really weird that you wear his dead body.” As someone raised Catholic, the Corpus was an image I knew intimately. We had Crucifixes all over our home, everyone in my family did. And for reasons I couldn’t quite explain, I actually preferred them over the plain crosses I saw elsewhere. The crosses seemed more elegant, more refined — but the Crucifixes felt more complete. More to-the-point.

My friend’s disgust compelled me to reflect, in a way I never had before, on the image of Christ’s body, wounded and twisted and tortured. Why was this a visual that compelled me? It didn’t make a lot of sense for someone who abhorred dead bodies so much that I found it difficult to look into a casket at a wake. So, what was different about this? My friend wasn’t wrong: Christ is no longer on the cross. The sacrifice has been made. But does that mean it is over? We re-present it every single Mass. It’s the point of everything that we do. Jesus did not sacrifice his spirit; he sacrificed his body. He bought us with every tear of the flesh, with every drop of blood. The cross is crucial, yes. But that wood didn’t bleed for us. If the body wasn’t the point, Jesus would not have become human at all. Jesus needed the body. We need it, too.

“While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, ‘Take it; this is my body.’ — Matthew 26:26—LPI

(PRACTICANDO) CATÓLICA:
RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS
Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
Este es mi Cuerpo

Una amiga de la escuela secundaria me preguntó una vez por qué llevaba un crucifijo alrededor del cuello. Ella era cristiana y muy devota, así que me sorprendió su confusión. “Para recordar el sacrificio de Jesús,” dije.

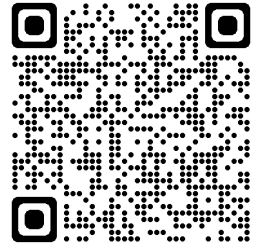

Su labio superior se curvó con disgusto. “La cruz es una señal del sacrificio de Jesús,” dije. “Ya no está en la cruz. Es realmente extraño que uses su cadáver.” Como alguien criada como católica, el Corpus era una imagen que conocía íntimamente. Teníamos crucifijos por toda nuestra casa, como todos los miembros de mi familia. Y por razones que no pude explicar del todo, las preferí a las cruces simples que vi en otros lugares. Las cruces parecían más elegantes, más refinadas, pero los Crucifijos parecían más completos. Más al punto. El disgusto de mi amiga me obligó a reflexionar, como nunca antes lo había hecho, sobre la imagen del cuerpo de Cristo, herido, retorcido y torturado. ¿Por qué fue esta una imagen que me atrajo? No tenía mucho sentido para alguien que aborrecía tanto los cadáveres que me resultaba difícil mirar dentro de un ataúd en un velorio. Entonces, ¿qué había de diferente en esto? Mi amiga no se equivocó: Cristo ya no está en la cruz. El sacrificio ha sido hecho. ¿Pero eso significa que se acabó? Lo representamos en cada Misa. Es el objetivo de todo lo que hacemos. Jesús no sacrificó su espíritu; sacrificó su cuerpo. Él nos compró con cada rasgón de la carne, con cada gota de sangre. La cruz es crucial, sí. Pero ese madero no sangró por nosotros. Si el cuerpo no fuera el objetivo, Jesús no se habría hecho humano en absoluto. Jesús necesitaba el cuerpo. Nosotros también lo necesitamos.

Mientras cenaban, Jesús tomó un pan, pronunció la bendición, lo partió y se lo dio a sus discípulos, diciendo: “Tomen: esto es mi cuerpo.” —Mateo 26:26—©LPI

Please join us. We have, once again, expanded our outreach efforts. We will be supplying the Police Dept. with blankets for them to have in their cars. They will be able to distribute them as they see a need, especially for a child in a bad situation. We have also offered prayer blankets to High Desert Haven for their residents that need comforting.

We need more ladies to sew. Ask your friends. Come to the meeting and pick out fabric. Bring your sewing machine if you care to. You can sew there and/or take the fabric home and sew at your convenience.

Please let us know you will be attending so you can receive an email telling you what to bring, if you want to sew. You do not need to attend the meetings to be a part of this ministry. You can also pick out fabric at my home. For more info: Susie Jensen, 760-608-0459.

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Greetings from Ridgecrest: Let us resume with the quotes from the priests' retreat: The next quote is, "Who you are before God is who you are, and nothing more (Saint Francis of Assisi)."

A good relationship with God is important. This will help determine who I am. In other words, do I pray? Am I committed to God? Am I learning about my faith? Do I go to confession on a regular basis? Do I read scriptures? Am I a good example to others? How one acts can say a good deal about that person. However, no one forces one to be who they are. One chooses to be who they are. One has free will. This a great gift that God has given us. We can decide what to do with our lives. We make our own decisions. We say, "Yes or No." We do or we don't. This means that proper education is crucial to doing what's right. How do we know that we are choosing to do right? In today's society, good can be bad and bad can be good. Being a virgin can mean bad. Watching pornography can be normal. Our society has gone Haywire. So, what can we do to make sure that we are doing right? Simple, follow God. Do God's will. Listen to God. How do we begin? We begin with prayer and sincerity. We begin by wanting to totally change (conversion). We surrender to God, every day. We follow the commandments and the statutes of God. We teach the truth that comes from God and to teach it to our children (Deuteronomy 6:7). God gives us the commandments because He knows what is best for us (Exodus 19:25). Moreover, Jesus perfects or fulfills the law (Matthew 5:17). Jesus sums up the commandments with the greatest commandment. "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. You shall love your neighbor as yourself (Matthew 22:37,39)". Jesus also says that He is the way, the truth and life (John 14:6). Therefore, we would be wise to follow Christ and the Church. We will know who we are and nothing more. God bless.

Saludos desde Ridgecrest: Resumamos con las citas del retiro de los sacerdotes: La siguiente cita es: "Lo que eres ante Dios es lo que eres, y nada más (San Francisco de Asís)". Una buena relación con Dios es importante. Esto ayudará a determinar quién soy. En otras palabras, ¿rezo? ¿Estoy comprometido con Dios? ¿Estoy aprendiendo acerca de mi fe? ¿Me confieso regularmente? ¿Leo las Escrituras? ¿Soy un buen ejemplo para los demás? La forma en que uno actúa puede decir mucho sobre esa persona. Sin embargo, nadie obliga a uno a ser quien es. Uno elige ser quien es. Uno tiene libre albedrío. Este es un gran regalo que Dios nos ha dado.

Podemos decidir qué hacer con nuestras vidas. Tomamos nuestras propias decisiones. Nosotros decimos: "Sí o no". Lo hacemos o no lo hacemos. Esto significa que la educación adecuada es crucial para hacer lo correcto. ¿Cómo sabemos que estamos eligiendo hacer lo correcto? En la sociedad actual, lo bueno puede ser malo y lo malo puede ser bueno. Ser virgen puede significar algo malo. Ver pornografía puede ser normal. Nuestra sociedad se ha vuelto loca. Entonces, ¿qué podemos hacer para asegurarnos de que lo estamos haciendo bien? Simple, sigue a Dios. Haz la voluntad de Dios. Escucha a Dios. ¿Cómo empezamos? Comenzamos con la oración y la sinceridad. Comenzamos por querer cambiar totalmente (conversión). Nos rendimos a Dios, todos los días. Seguimos los mandamientos y las estatutas de Dios. Enseñamos la verdad que viene de Dios y se la enseñamos a nuestros hijos (Deuteronomio 6:7). Dios nos da los mandamientos porque Él sabe lo que es mejor para nosotros (Éxodo 19:25). Además, Jesús perfecciona o cumple la ley (Mateo 5:17). Jesús resume los mandamientos con el mandamiento más grande. "Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente. Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo (Mateo 22:37,39). Jesús también dice que Él es el camino, la verdad y la vida (Juan 14:6). Por lo tanto, sería sabio seguir a Cristo y a la Iglesia. Sabremos quiénes somos y nada más. Dios los bendiga.

Knights of Columbus Council #3199 Announcement

Ours is an organization which brings Catholic men and their families together for community service, fellowship, and mutual support. We meet here at the St. Ann parish, while continuing to be open to members from China Lake and other surrounding communities.

The Knights also provide affordable insurance protection to Catholic families; this is a core mission for us, a major reason for our founding. Our founder Father McGivney saw this as a critical need for working men and women in his parish, and we continue to serve communities with this service. So whether you are interested in serving the community or asking about what else we do, please contact your council's Grand Knight Sean Patrick at: (802) 431-5656 or write an email to KofC_council_3199@yahoo.com.
