Dear Lord,

There's a young man or woman far from home, called to serve their nation in a difficult time; sent to defend our freedom on some distant foreign shore.

We pray You keep them safe, We pray You keep them strong, we pray You send them safely home, For they've been away so long.

Bless those who await their safe return and those who mourn the lost.

Bless those who serve this country well, no matter what the cost.

Amado Señor,

Hay un joven o una mujer lejos de casa, llamado a servir a su nación en tiempos difíciles; enviado para defender nuestra libertad en alguna costa extranjera distante.

Oramos Para que los mantengas a salvo, Rezamos Para que los mantengas fuertes, rezamos Para que los envíes sanos y salvos a casa, porque han estado fuera tanto tiempo. Bendice a los que esperan su regreso seguro y a los que lloran a los perdidos.

Bendice a los que sirven bien a este país, no importa el costo.

ORACIÓN POR LA VERDAD

Querido Señor, Tus profetas fueron los que hablaron Tu Verdad. Ayúdame a ser también un hablante de la verdad, alguien que recuerde de Tu amor, anime a los humildes y señale cada vez más profundamente a ti. Amén.—©LPi

PRAYER FOR TRUTH

Dear Lord, Your prophets were those who spoke Your Truth. Help me to be a speaker of truth as well, one who reminds of Your love, encourages the lowly, and points ever more deeply to You. Amen. —©LPi

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
A Prophet and His Native Place

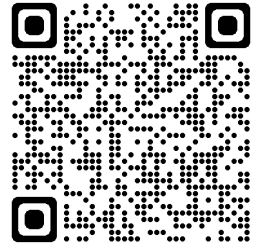

“A prophet is not without honor except in his native place.” It could be the slogan of high school reunions everywhere. I speak from experience — I didn't go to my high school reunion, but I do live in the same area in which I grew up. Ghosts from the past lurk in every grocery aisle and gas station. Former classmates fill my prescriptions at the pharmacy. I am always sure to see an old teacher or two at the Fourth of July parade. If my teenage self knew that this was her future, she would be horrified. She wanted to grow up and move away, not because she didn't like living in this town, but because she wanted to reinvent herself. And you can't reinvent yourself in your native place. In your hometown, you'll always be exactly what you are — no more, no less. The same was true for Jesus, who was probably the only person actually worthy of admiration at his high school reunion. When he returned to his native place, he was what he had always been — God and man, Messiah, miracle-worker. This is not something he became, it was always within him. But the people of Nazareth cannot accept it. Why? Well, probably for the same reason that I wanted to reinvent myself when I was 16. We don't often see anything worth venerating in the “right now” of our lives. We think happiness is a promotion or a pay bump away. We think we'll finally be holy when we find the time to take that silent retreat. We think we will be beautiful when we lose ten pounds. The Nazarenes lived with God right under their noses, and they didn't realize it. So, when he came in all his greatness, the dissonance was too much to bear, and they rejected him. They didn't want that God — the one they had dismissed or overlooked or ignored. They wanted a different one. A shinier one. One that didn't look like the “right now” of their lives. But that's where God is, folks. He's in the right now, and nowhere else. He's waiting there for you, with all the happiness, holiness, and beauty your life needs. Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” — Mark 6:4

(PRACTICANDO) CATÓLICA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS
Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
Un Profeta y Su Lugar Natal

“Un profeta no carece de honor excepto en su lugar natal.” Podría ser el lema de las reuniones de estudiantes de secundaria en todas partes. Hablo por experiencia: no fui a la reunión de mi escuela preparatoria, pero vivo en la misma zona en la que crecí. Fantasmas del pasado acechan en cada pasillo de supermercado y gasolinera. Antiguos compañeros de clase surten mis recetas en la farmacia. Siempre estoy seguro de ver a uno o dos viejos maestros en el desfile del 4 de julio. Si mi yo adolescente supiera que este era su futuro, se horrorizaría. Ella quería crecer y mudarse, no porque no le gustara vivir en este pueblo, sino porque quería reinventarse. Y no puedes reinventarte en tu lugar natal. En tu ciudad natal, siempre serás exactamente lo que eres, ni más ni menos. Lo mismo ocurrió con Jesús, quien probablemente fue la única persona realmente digna de admiración en su reunión de preparatoria. Cuando regresó a su lugar natal, era lo que siempre había sido: Dios y hombre, Mesías, hacedor de milagros. Esto no es algo en lo que se convirtió, siempre estuvo dentro de él. Pero el pueblo de Nazaret no puede aceptarlo. ¿Por qué? Bueno, probablemente por la misma razón por la que quise reinventarme cuando tenía 16 años. No solemos ver nada que valga la pena venerar en el “ahora mismo” de nuestras vidas. Creemos que la felicidad es un ascenso o un aumento salarial. Creemos que finalmente seremos santos cuando encontremos el tiempo para hacer ese retiro silencioso. Creemos que seremos hermosos cuando perdamos diez libras. Los nazarenos vivían con Dios delante de sus narices y no se daban cuenta. Entonces, cuando llegó en toda su grandeza, la disonancia fue demasiado difícil de soportar y lo rechazaron. No querían a ese Dios, el que habían descartado, pasado por alto o ignorado. Querían uno diferente. Uno más brillante. Uno que no pareciera el “ahora mismo” de sus vidas. Pero ahí es donde está Dios, amigos. Él está en el ahora mismo y en ningún otro lugar. Él te está esperando allí, con toda la felicidad, la santidad y la belleza que tu vida necesita. Jesús les dijo: “Todos honran a un profeta, menos los de su tierra, sus parientes y los de su casa.” — Marcos 6:4—©LPi

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Greetings from Ridgecrest: Let us resume with the quotes from the priests' retreat: The next quote is, "Suffering without love is unendurable. But love without suffering is meaningless." To understand this quote, I will delve into the mystery of suffering. We suffer every day. There is not one day where we don't suffer. We suffer from heat, cold, pain, illness, stress, depression, loss of a loved one, hunger, sadness, accidents, natural disasters, wars, et cetera. I think that suffering is connected to the crucifixion of Jesus. The crucifixion is the peak of all suffering put together. Jesus suffered more than anyone in history. Mary, the mother of Jesus suffered, the second most in history. Jesus and Mary suffered greatly because they are both sinless. Jesus and Mary suffered greatly because they are both virgins (purity). Jesus suffered greatly because he is God. Mary suffered greatly because she is full of grace (Immaculate Conception). These perfections and virtues make Jesus and Mary very sensitive to suffering. One can only imagine and reason the sufferings that Jesus and Mary experienced. How did they manage? They had a tremendous love for God. Jesus is one with God, and he maintained a perfect relationship with God. Mary is full of grace, and she maintain a perfect relationship with God. Through the crucifixion, Jesus demonstrated perfect love and suffering for the Father. Through the crucifixion, Mary cooperated with Jesus perfect love and suffering to the Father. Therefore, when we suffer, we ought to offer our suffering to Jesus through Mary. It is important that we offer our love and suffering, in the state of grace. The mystery is: Why did God choose to save us via suffering? The answer that I can give is that this is the best way that Jesus can demonstrate his love for the Father and all humanity. Also, suffering on the cross contains virtues like humility, perseverance, selflessness, forgiveness, poverty, sacrifice, and love. This is why it is important that we offer our sufferings to the crucified Lord. God bless.

Saludos desde Ridgecrest: Resumamos con las citas del retiro de los sacerdotes: La siguiente cita es: "El sufrimiento sin amor es insoportable. Pero el amor sin sufrimiento no tiene sentido". Para entender esta cita, profundizaré en el misterio del sufrimiento. Sufrimos todos los días. No hay un día en el que no suframos. Sufrimos de calor, frío, dolor, enfermedad, estrés, depresión, pérdida de un ser querido, hambre, tristeza, accidentes, desastres naturales, guerras, etcétera. Creo que el sufrimiento está conectado con la crucifixión de Jesús. La crucifixión es la cumbre de todo el sufrimiento junto. Jesús sufrió más que nadie en la historia. María, la madre de Jesús, sufrió la segunda mayor cantidad en la historia. Jesús y María sufrieron mucho porque ambos no tienen pecado. Jesús y María sufrieron mucho porque ambos son vírgenes (pureza). Jesús sufrió mucho porque él es Dios. María sufrió mucho porque está llena de gracia (Inmaculada Concepción). Estas perfecciones y virtudes hacen que Jesús y María sean muy sensibles al sufrimiento. Uno solo puede imaginar y razonar los sufrimientos que experimentaron Jesús y María. ¿Cómo se las arreglaron? Tenían un tremendo amor por Dios. Jesús es uno con Dios y mantuvo una relación perfecta con Dios. María está llena de gracia y mantiene una relación perfecta con Dios. A través de la crucifixión, Jesús demostró un amor y un sufrimiento perfectos por el Padre. A través de la crucifixión, María cooperó con Jesús en el amor perfecto y el sufrimiento al Padre. Por lo tanto, cuando sufrimos, debemos ofrecer nuestro sufrimiento a Jesús a través de María. Es importante que ofrezcamos nuestro amor y sufrimiento, en estado de gracia. El misterio es: ¿Por qué Dios eligió salvarnos a través del sufrimiento? La respuesta que puedo dar es que esta es la mejor manera en que Jesús puede demostrar su amor por el Padre y por toda la humanidad. Además, el sufrimiento en la cruz contiene virtudes como la humildad, la perseverancia, el altruismo, el perdón, la pobreza, el sacrificio y el amor. Por eso es importante que ofrezcamos nuestros sufrimientos al Señor crucificado. Dios los bendiga.

PARISH LIFE IN OUR COMMUNITY

Knights of Columbus

Knights of Columbus Council #3199 Announcement

Ours is an organization which brings Catholic men and their families together for community service, fellowship, and mutual support. We meet here at the St. Ann parish 1st. Wednesday of the month at 7:00pm, while continuing to be open to members from China Lake and other surrounding communities.

The Knights also provide affordable insurance protection to Catholic families; this is a core mission for us, a major reason for our founding. Our founder Father McGivney saw this as a critical need for working men and women in his parish, and we continue to serve communities with this service. So whether you are interested in serving the community or asking about what else we do, please contact your council's Grand Knight Sean Patrick at: (802) 431-5656 or write an email to KofC_council_3199@yahoo.com.
